Preface.

In the year 1615, the Counties of Cumberland, Durham, Northumberland, and Westmoreland, were visited by Richard St. George, Norroy. The Visitation of Cumberland was printed by the Harleian Society in 1873; that of Durham at Sunderland in 1820; and Westmoreland at London in 1853. A few pedigrees from the Northumberland Visitation were privately printed by the late Sir Thomas Phillipps, but have never been circulated. No apology need, therefore, be offered for printing in its entirety the Visitation of Northumberland, the following copy of which is taken from Harleian MS. 1448. No copy of any other Northumberland Visitation exists outside the College of Arms. Though some MSS. in the Harleian collection profess to be such, they will on examination prove to be mere collections of Northumbrian pedigrees, not copies of Visitations properly so called.

February, 1878.
